Appleton August 19th 1862

Hon. Israel Washburn Jr.

Governor, After returning home from Augusta and making enquiry in regard to our men that <sup>have</sup> enlisted for other towns and I found three more men that had enlisted from our town viz. Elisha Fish Hope

Abner J. Davis & Horatio Collamore
North Haven

Your honor if you wish to know the whole number that have enlisted since the commencement of the war please write and I will send you the No.
Also we would like to know the No. of men that our town will be obliged to furnish to fill our next quota, for our town had a meeting yesterday and townsmen are in for raising a bounty and adjourned their meeting to next Saturday.

Please answer this by return of mail for we wish to know how many men we shall be obliged to furnish to fill our next quota and whether we shall have any recompense for our surplus of men that have gone into other towns.

Yours with respect Oliver R. Butler ) Selectmen J. H. Wentworth ) of Appleton
